Article I. In General.

Secs. 3-1 to 3-5. Reserved.

Article II. Outdoor Entertainment Assemblages or Festivals.

Sec. 3-6. Purpose of article; findings.

The Board of Supervisors of Campbell County, Virginia, hereby finds and declares that certain gatherings of groups or individuals for the purposes of entertainment activities conducted either wholly or partly in open spaces not within an enclosed structure tend to draw together in the vicinity large crowds of people, thus generating high levels of noise, music, odors, disturbances, trash, traffic congestion, parking problems, safety and fire hazards; etc.; that such conditions tend to interfere substantially with the reasonable and proper enjoyment of adjacent public or private property, to disrupt substantially the public's use of public streets and rights-of-way, and to impede necessary access to the vicinity by police, fire, and rescue vehicles; that the police powers granted to Campbell County under VA. CODE ANN. §15.2-1200 (Repl. Vol. 2018) extend beyond the promotion of health, safety, and general welfare, and comprehend the duty, within constitutional limitations, to protect the well-being and tranquility of the community; and that it is the intent of the County of Campbell to regulate such outdoor assemblages and festivals so as to promote and preserve the health, safety, general welfare, and good order of the County and its citizens without unduly restraining liberty or property.

For general police powers granted to counties, see VA. CODE ANN. §15.2-1200 (Repl. Vol. 2018). See also VA. CODE ANN. §15.2-925 (Repl. Vol. 2018), §15.2-926 (Repl. Vol. 2018).

[THE DECEMBER 1, 1997 AMENDMENT substantially rewrote this section.]

[THE FEBRUARY 2, 1998 and AUGUST 3, 1998 AMENDMENTS substituted “§15.2-1200 (Repl. Vol. 1997)” for “§15.1-510 (Repl. Vol. 1989).”]

Sec. 3-7. "Outdoor entertainment assemblage or festival" defined; exemption.

"Outdoor entertainment assemblage or festival" shall mean any gathering of groups or individuals for the purposes of entertainment where such entertainment activities are conducted either wholly or partly in open spaces not within an enclosed structure and where such activity is not of a nature and scope customarily incidental and subordinate to the principal use and intended function of the subject structure or land. Such assemblages or festivals may include, either primarily or incidentally, the presentation of musical renditions.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to religious or political gatherings and other activities protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Cross-reference.--For State Board of Health regulations in re certain public gathering places, see VA. CODE ANN. §32.1-198 et seq. (Repl. Vol. 2015).

[THE DECEMBER 1, 1997 AMENDMENT substantially rewrote this section, deleting references to "for the purpose of listening to or participating in entertainment which consists primarily of musical renditions conducted in open spaces..." and adding the exemption stated in the second paragraph.]

[THE AUGUST 3, 1998 AMENDMENT added "and where such activity is not of a nature and scope customarily incidental and subordinate to the principal use and intended function of the subject structure or land" at the end of the first sentence in the first paragraph.]
