Dear Mr. Laurrell:

This is our special duty, that if anyone specially needs our help,

On behalf of United Way of Central Virginia and the people in our community whose lives will be improved, we thank you for your organization's generous support of our 2007 Annual Campaign. By giving your endorsement to partnering with United Way of Central Virginia either through a workplace campaign or making a corporate contribution, you are demonstrating genuine leadership.

Because of the continuing support of companies, employees, and individuals in our community like you, lives are being improved in our community—right here, right now. Children will be better prepared for school, vulnerable seniors will be able to stay longer in their own homes, troubled youth will have positive role models, families facing emergency situations will have their needs met.

You are very special to our community, and we are truly grateful for your personal and community leadership.

Once again, we thank Campbell County for supporting United Way of Central Virginia during our 2007 Annual Campaign.

Sincerely,

Marc Jordan
President and CEO
