The Campbell County Board of Supervisors met with the staff and councils of the Town of Altavista and the Town of Brookneal for a dinner meeting at Colonial Restaurant. The evening was enjoyed by all and was part of the ongoing effort to continue the spirit of cooperation between the County and the Towns. Everyone agreed that if the Towns were doing well, the County was doing well, and vice versa.

There was discussion concerning the economic losses suffered by the Town of Brookneal and the pending closure of Burlington Industries just outside of the Town of Altavista. The challenge facing the County and the Towns was retraining workers to meet the needs of today's labor market. Another challenge is retaining young people in this area to provide a skilled workforce.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

EDDIE GUNTER, CHAIRMAN
